B. Permitted

Provided that the copyright header attached to the article is retained, Authorized Users at the Subscribing Member's institution may

1. download and print one copy of each article for personal use and archive contents on their own personal computers
2. use an "offline browser" that allows downloading content from the site to be read later. The browser must be configured to request no more than one article per minute. Non-compliance with this rule will result in access to Project MUSE being blocked until the problem is resolved. If the problem is repeated, the offending IP may be permanently blocked from accessing the Project MUSE site.
3. send one copy by email, hard copy, or fax to one person in the subscribers' campus/institutional network at another location for that individual's personal use
4. distribute a copy of individual articles or items of the licensed materials in print or electronic form to other Authorized Users, including the distribution of a copy for noncommercial educational purposes, to each individual student (Authorized User) in a class at the Subscriber's institution.
5. use a persistent link, or durable URL, to the licensed materials, including full-text articles, for courses of instruction offered by the Subscribing Institution, where access is restricted to students enrolled in the course, to instructors, and to library staff maintaining the link, and such access is limited to the duration of the course. Each item should carry an appropriate acknowledgment of the source, copyright, and publisher, and the links to such items shall be deleted by the Subscriber when they are no longer required for such purpose.
6. provide facsimile images that are exact representations of the print Journal pages or of printouts from the electronic database for interlibrary loan under CONTU (National Commission on New Technological Uses of Copyright Works) (<http://www.cni.org/docs/infopols/CONTU.html>) guidelines and distributed in paper, fax, or digital form
7. place selected listings and notices on the campus network to inform users of availability
8. display, download or print the Licensed materials for the purpose of internal marketing or testing or for training Authorized Users or groups of Authorized Users

C. Not Permitted

Authorized Users at the Subscribing Member's institution may not

1. disseminate content from Project MUSE outside the campus or institution by any means, except as noted above.
2. transmit the digital source code, whether plain ASCII or tagged, and use contents and articles from Project MUSE in digital course packs

3. systematically download content by robots or other automatic processes without explicit approval from JHUP
4. burden server(s) with activities, such as computer programs, that automatically download content, commonly known as web robots, spiders, crawlers, wanderers, or accelerators. If there is evidence that such unauthorized activities have taken place, the Subscribing Member will be contacted, and access to the offending IP address(es) may be shut down if a prompt resolution is not achieved. No refunds or credits will be given for time without access as a result of such activities.
5. remove, cover, overlay, obscure, block, or change any copyright notices, legends, or terms of use; or modify or create a derivative work of any Journal content without the prior written permission of the copyright holder
6. re-use content for commercial use without prior written permission of the copyright holder
7. make agreements for access to Project MUSE Journal content with individuals, organizations, vendors, affiliates, or partners, who are not Authorized Users

Regarding section III.C above, if Subscribing Members become aware of unauthorized access to the Project Muse Database, they will notify JHUP immediately and cooperate in locating and attempting to stop the specific individuals who are abusing the service. If the specific abuser(s) cannot be identified or stopped, JHUP has the right to withhold, suspend, or terminate access to any or all licensed content for that subscribing member, without liability.
